

2nd CUA Workshop in Medieval Philosophy

February 7–8, 2014
The Catholic University of America
Aquinas Hall library

Friday, February 7
1:00	Dean John McCarthy	Welcoming remarks
1:10–2:10	John Mellein OP Ph.D. student, CUA	Many Meanings of "Substance" in the Thought of Thomas Aquinas
2:20–3:20	Wouter Goris Professor of philosophy, University of Amsterdam	Transcendental Unity and the Doctrine of Formalities
3:30–5:00	Tianyue Wu Professor of philosophy, Peking University	Aristotle and Aquinas on Mixed Actions This talk will take place in the Aquinas Hall Auditorium
Reception
Saturday, February 8
Coffee and Danish available from 8:30
9:00–10:00	Mary Z. Smith Ph.D. student, CUA	Genoese rulership in the Chronica Civitatis Ianuensis of Jacopo da Varagine, OP († 1298)
10:15–11:15	Blaise Blain Ph.D. student, CUA	Aquinas and Scotus on the Role of the Phantasm in Abstraction
11:30–12:30	Timothy Noone Prof. of philosophy, CUA	Scotus on Being and Habitual Cognition
Lunch
2:00–3:00	Andrea Colli Lecturer, U. of Trent	Which science is honorabilissima? Albert the Great on the "nobility" of theology
3:15–4:15	Francis Feingold Ph.D. student, CUA	Pure Act and Real Relations: An Investigation of Divine Friendship-Love
4:30–5:30	Scott Roniger Ph.D. student, CUA	The Primacy of the Common Good as the Foundation for Absolute Moral Prohibitions
6:00	Vigil Mass
Dinner

Please RSVP and check for updates on <http://faculty.cua.edu/hoffmann/workshop.htm>

The workshop is sponsored by the School of Philosophy. For disability accommodation please contact 202-319-5259; for more information contact Tobias Hoffmann, hoffmann@cua.edu

